

Competence in Healthcare since 20 years

Recruitment and staffing services of qualified employees for the German Healthcare Market. IQPlus means integration, qualification, migration and more.

We are an internationally orientated company within the scope of personnel recruitment for doctors, nurses and functional staff in the medical field.

We live flat hierarchy and harmonious coexistence. Transparency, respect and equal treatment is an important concept for us. We live an honest, open minded and binding communication.

We look after our applicants in all their professional and everyday challenges.

We support in the search for accommodation, in all administrative procedures as well as in the language certificate B2 and the recognition of professional qualification in Germany.

We do not accept any mediation fees from applicants. For this, we expect a high level of commitment and motivation!

The IQPlus team is looking forward to meet you!
